ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No. Nature of Noncompliance

1. Shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime:

On June 20, 2012, James E. Campbell was arrested for Driving Under the Influence (DUI) by the Metropolitan Nashville Police Department, Nashville, Tennessee. According to the affidavit, he registered a .084% Blood Alcohol Content (BAC). He is to appear in Davidson County General Sessions Court, Nashville, Tennessee, on July 11, 2012, for an initial appearance.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

This officer spoke with Mr. Campbell on June 21, 2012, to discuss the arrest. Mr. Campbell advised he had not eaten lunch and drank five beers. Furthermore, he was on his way to pick up dinner when he was stopped around 7:00 p.m. Mr. Campbell has been on supervision since October 2, 2009, and this is his first violation.

Mr. Campbell is currently receiving disability benefits and resides with his son.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is recommended that Mr. Campbell be continued on supervised release. The Court will be notified of the disposition so it may determine if any further action is necessary.

The U. S. Attorney's Office has been advised of the offender's noncompliance.

Approved:
Kenneth Parham
Supervisory U.S. Probation Officer
